Dear Colleague:

I would like to invite you to a Face-to-Face dinner discussion on "Covert Action" on Tuesday, November 1. Our panelists will be Mr. William Colby, former Director of Central Intelligence, and Congressman Wyche Fowler (D-Ga), Chairman of the Subcommittee on Oversight and Evaluation, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence.

Mr. Colby is a graduate of Princeton University and has a law degree from Columbia. He served with the OSS during World War II in France and Norway, then practiced law and worked for the NLRB. During the fifties he served at our embassies in Stockholm and Rome. After heading the pacification program in South Vietnam, he rose through a series of CIA posts to be Director of Central Intelligence from 1973 to 1976. Since then he has worked as a lawyer and consultant.

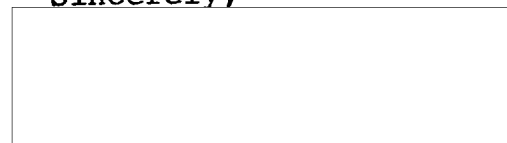

Mr. Fowler received his B.A. from Davidson College and his law degree from Emory University. During the sixties, he was an aide to Congressman Charles Weltner. He then served on the Atlanta Board of Aldermen and as president of the Atlanta City Council before being elected to Congress in 1976. He is noted for his criticism of Reagan Administration policy toward Nicaragua.

The discussants' opening remarks will be on-the-record. The ensuing discussion will be off-the-record.

We will meet in the Carnegie Conference Center, 11 Dupont Circle, 8th floor (entrance on New Hampshire Avenue, across from the Dupont Plaza Hotel entrance). You are invited for cocktails at 6:30 pm. The discussants will speak at 7:00, followed by discussion until dinner at 8:00. Discussion will continue after dinner until between 9:30 and 10:00 pm.

We look forward to seeing you on the 1st. Please respond whether or not you will attend by calling me at (202) 797-6414 by October 26.

Sincerely,

Director
